

From that time, Jesus began to teach his disciples that it is necessary that he go to Jerusalem...

and that he will suffer many things at the hands of the elders, chief priests and teachers of the law and be killed...

and to rise on the third day.

Then Peter took him aside

and rebuked him

Never, Lord!

May this never happen to you!

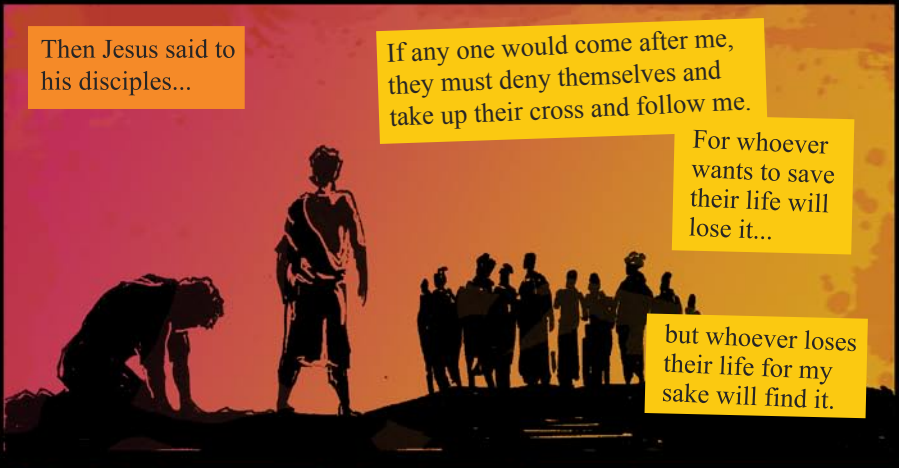

Then turned to Peter and said

Get behind me Satan!

You are a stumbling block to me;

Your mind is not set on the things of God,

but on the things of men.

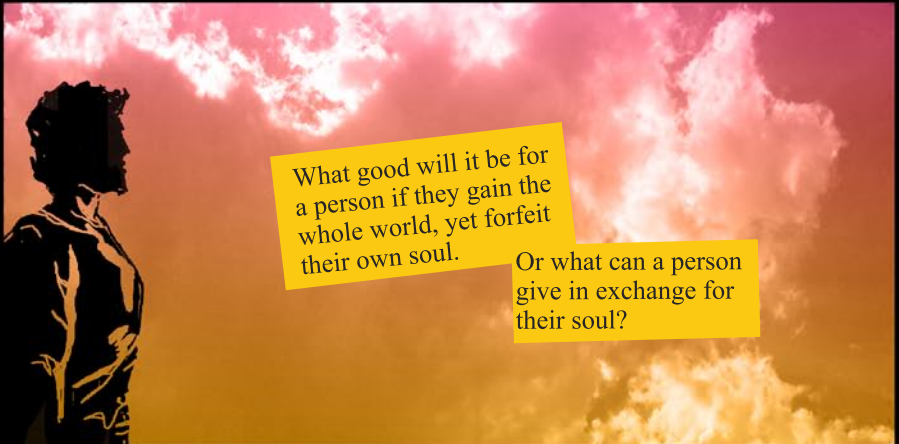

Then Jesus said to his disciples...

If any one would come after me, they must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me.

For whoever wants to save their life will lose it...

but whoever loses their life for my sake will find it.

What good will it be for a person if they gain the whole world, yet forfeit their own soul.

Or what can a person give in exchange for their soul?
