

*As the deer longs for
the water-brooks,
so longs my soul for you,
O God.*

My soul is athirst for God, athirst for the living God;

When shall I come to appear before the presence of God?

My tears have been my food day and night, while all day long they say to me,

“Where now is your God?”

I pour out my soul when I think on these things; how I went with the multitude and led them into the house of God,

With the voice of praise and thanksgiving, among those who keep holy-day.

Why are you so full of heaviness, O my soul? and why are you so disquieted within me?

Put your trust in God;

for I will yet give thanks to him, who is the help of my countenance, and my God.

My soul is heavy within me;

therefore I will remember you from the land of Jordan, and from the peak of Mizar among the heights of Hermon.

One deep calls to another in the noise of your cataracts;
all your rapids and floods have gone over me.

The LORD grants
his loving-kindness
in the daytime;
in the night season
his song is with me,
a prayer to the God of my life.

I will say to the God
of my strength,

“Why have you
forgotten me? and why do I go so heavily while the enemy
oppresses me?”

While my bones are being broken, my enemies mock me to my face; All day long they mock me
and say to me, “Where now is your God?”

Why are you so
full of heaviness,
O my soul?

and why are you so disquieted
within me?

Put your trust in God; for I will yet
give thanks to him,
who is the help of
my countenance,
and my God.
